Berlin's Woman Chauffeur.

Berlin's woman chauffeur is making

as she always intended to do—a very good livelihood. Clad in a simple but becoming coat and skirt of serviceable material, Frau von Papp drives

one of the Bedag company's electrodrochkes with consummate skill. She is not, however, at the beck and call of the general public, but is in the employment of the Kaiserhof hotel, and drives its visitors alone. The woman's story is interesting. Her husband—

an apparently well-to-do lawyer—died,

leaving her and three young children penniless. Frau von Papp always had a fondness for automobile, and quickly decided upon her profession.

Having satisfied the police authorities

as to her capabilities, she obtained her present post and is keeping herself and family in comfort.

FIRST VISIT TO THE COUNTRY.

Murorous Comment Made by Little Visitors from the City.

The questions and answers of little boys and girls upon their first visit to the country are often truly amusing. One little boy from the city slams was, with great difficulty, coaxed to go. He said he heard there were "thrashing machines" in the country, and he didn't want to go there to be thrashed. The same little boy, when asked why the chickens interested him so greatly, replied, "I've only seen them that's been pecked in the city." Another little boy once went to the country on a visit. Seeing his aunt plucking the feathers from a chicken that evening, he asked, "Auntie, do you undress all the chickens before putting them to bed?" The cows were favorites with Lottie, a little girl of eight. She begged to be permitted to milk, and, finding herself rather unsuccessful, thought she'd "better begin on a calf first." Lottie also wanted to know if you had to buy gum for the cows to chew on and whether the milk that came from a separator was the same that came from the cows. She thought it was so funny, too, that "all hens ate with their noses."

POLICE ARE CONFIDENT

Dead Man's Name is Richards.

BODY IN THE MORGUE

Answers the Discription Given by His Sister.

Stranger Who Dropped Dead Thought to be Martin Richards, Cleveland Teamster.

Through the efforts of the police of this city and of Cleveland, it is believed that the mystery concerning the name and residence of the unknown man who dropped dead Thursday morning in the Erie yards, has been cleared up and that by tomorrow he will be positively identified as Martin Richards, aged 30 years, a Cleveland teamster.

Captain Bond, of the local force, received a letter Tuesday from Chief Kohler, of Cleveland, asking for full particulars of the death of the man. A sister of Martin Richards, in Cleveland, has had information that he brother was either killed by the cars or shot while resisting arrest in this city.

She states to the Cleveland police that her brother was about five feet, eight inches in height, of medium build, with light hair and blue eyes. The description tallies exactly with that of the man who is being kept at the Hoss and Markert morgue. The letter states that he left Cleveland October 4.

In the dead man's clothes two sales slips were found, and one bore the name of Slim Richards. Both were issued by a Cleveland firm.

It is believed that the sister learned of her brother's death from his pal who disappeared immediately after the man was found dead. The pal, it is thought, supposed that his partner had got mixed up with the police and so he got out.

Captain Bond wired to Chief Kohler today stating that it is almost certain that the dead man is Martin Richards and asked for instructions. He also mailed a letter giving full details.

The body, which was embalmed, is in a perfect state of preservation, and it is stated that if desired it can be kept for several days to come. It is probable that the sister of Martin Richards will come here to identify the remains, in which event the body will probably be taken to Cleveland for interment.

starves in Sight of Food.
York, Pa.—Surrounded by an abundance of tempting food, Jeremiah H. Yempe, aged 21 years, literally starved to death in his home here. For many days not a scrap of food and no liquid whatever had passed his lips. Thirst and hunger reduced him to a state of complete exhaustion until death freed him. An incurable malady of the throat made it impossible for Yempe to take food or drink. Friends and neighbors, knowing that the young man was sick, sent to his bedside, but he refused to eat or drink.

THE VALUE OF PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE

Personal knowledge is the winning factor in the culminating contests of this competitive age and when of ample character it places its fortunate possessor in the front ranks of

The Well Informed of the World.

A vast fund of personal knowledge is really essential to the achievement of the highest excellence in any field of human effort.

A Knowledge of Forms, Knowledge of Functions and Knowledge of Products are all of the utmost value and in questions of life and health when a true and wholesome remedy is desired it should be remembered that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., is an ethical product which has met with the approval of the most eminent physicians and gives universal satisfaction, because it is a remedy of Known Quality, Known Excellence and Known Component Parts and has won the valuable patronage of millions of the Well Informed of the world, who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual use that it is the first and best of family laxatives, for which no extravagant or unreasonable claims are made.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent family laxative. As its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well Informed of the world to be the best we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of—Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects, always note, when purchasing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, whether you call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.
